SCOUTING THE COMPETITION

The University of Missouri went 13-17 last season and 4-12 in the Big XII. The Tigers are picked to finish 12th in the conference, according to the preseason coaches poll.

The Tigers will look to their seniors, Amanda Henneman, Jessra Johnson, Toy Richbow and Marissa Scott for the leadership and experience the MU team has lacked in past seasons. Missouri features seven upperclassmen and eight players who have been a part of the team for the past three campaigns.

The point guard position is the most experienced for the Tigers and looks to be a strength. All three players, Bekah Mills, RaeShara Brown and Richbow, return for another season at this position. Brown averaged six points and 6.1 rebounds per game last year, the best of the three point guards.

At the wing position, Missouri has Henneman, Scott, and Jasmyn Otote as well as Brown returning for another season. Otote leads this group with 2.1 points per game as Scott collected 19 assists.

Missouri returns two of the best players in the Big XII in Johnson and Shakara Jones. Johnson is the top returner who averaged 13 points and 6.9 rebounds per game last season while collecting 58 assists. Jones, third in the statistical aspect of the team from a year ago, average 10.3 points and 4.3 rebounds per game while recording 30 assists.

The Tigers played an intrasquad game on Oct. 24. They will open play on Nov. 15 against Northern Iowa.

HEAD COACH - CINDY STEIN

Cindy Stein begins her 12th year at the helm of the Tigers basketball program and her 14th season as a head coach. She holds a 238-182 (.564) career record and a 173-159 (.530) mark at Missouri. Last season the Tigers went 13-17 overall and 4-17 in the Big 12. Stein has taken the Missouri Tigers to three NCAA Tournaments, including its first Sweet Sixteen in 2001. Prior to being the head coach at MU, Stein was the head coach at Emporia State. While at ESU, the team went 65-25 and was the NCAA Division II Runner up in her last season with the Hornets. Stein is a 1984 graduate of Illinois, and received her masters from Central Michigan in 1986.
