

- China

- Transcripts from any secondary or post-secondary institution attended, in Chinese and English.
- Applicants may send electronic CSSD/CHESICC verification reports of 1) their secondary or postsecondary transcripts and 2) degree certificate(s). The CSSD/CHESICC reports may be sent directly to the University of Central Missouri electronically via Parchment through the CSSD/CHESICC website

- India

- Graduate Applicants:

- UCM has begun accepting Indian three-year degrees for graduate studies again, so long as your three-year degree meets the following criteria:
 - The institution must be accredited by the University Grants Commission.
 - The institution must be NAAC accredited with a grade of A or higher.
 - The student must have graduated in 1stclass/1st division.
 - If your transcripts do not state the NAAC accreditation and grade or mention the class or division you graduated in, we will require that a letter from your school be sent directly to us (intladmit@ucmo.edu) providing those details. If this is not possible, we will require an outside evaluation of your transcripts from one of our approved evaluators stating that your degree is equivalent to a U.S. Bachelor's degree.
- Please provide all individual marksheets and either a provisional certificate or an original degree. If you are in your last semester or year, we must have marksheets through at least your 6th semester (or 7th if available).
- Transcripts are required from any college or university you have attended or are now attending - even if you do not want transfer credit.

- Undergraduate Applicants:

- Class 12 or Standard XII Board Examination Results as issued by the Examination Board.
- Transcripts are required from any college or university you have attended or are now attending – even if you do not want transfer credit.
